

The International Conference on Men and Abuse: An Academic-Community Approach

October 12-13, 2023

Holiday Inn Downtown Toronto, Ontario, Canada

Building on the successful, groundbreaking Men and Families Conference 2022, this hybrid conference brings together scholars, professional practices, community organizations, and community members with lived experiences to explore boys' and men's issues on abuse.

Presenters from over 12 countries and regions across 4 continents

- 2 Keynote speakers
- 3 Panel sessions
- Over 60 presentations

Conference Themes

- Childhood adversities
- Fathering/fatherhood
- Parental gatekeeping
- Perpetration, causes of
- Role of children & family services.....and more!

- Domestic/family abuse
- Family and criminal law
- High conflict situations
- Parental alienation
- Sextortion

- Ethnicity, immigration
- Family mediation
- Intimate partner abuse
- Parenthood
- Work, religious spheres

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Thursday, October 12

Disrupting Narratives on Masculinities and Violence

Benjamin Roebuck, PhD

*Federal Ombudsperson for Victims of Crime
Professor, Algonquin College, Ontario, Canada*

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Friday, October 13

Increasing Challenges With High Conflict Separations

Rachel Birnbaum, PhD

*Distinguished University Emeritus Professor
King's University College at Western, Ontario, Canada*

Online/In-Person Registration Is Now OPEN!

IFAlliance.net

| Spaces are limited.

